Exhibitor and Sponsor Opportunities

Support Critical Education for PA Contractors!

Pennsylvania is finally advancing from the 2008 NEC. As of October 1, 2018, Pennsylvania will be using the 2014 NEC as the enforcement document for electrical projects in the public domain. Your participation in this event will demonstrate your company's support of local contractors who will have to make major changes to their field work this fall.

Sponsorship Opportunities: Help EAP offset the cost of this event which allows us to keep registration fees affordable for contractors.
